Transitional Arrangements MSc Business Administration – Management Consulting 2017-2018

In September 2017 the curriculum of the MSc Business Administration – Management Consulting will partly change. The Faculty Board has, in accordance with the Exam regulations and in consultation with the Programme Directors, Examination Board and the Joint Meeting, made these transitional arrangements for students who did not pass one or more courses from the list below.

General Information

1. These transitional arrangements are valid only in the academic year 2017 – 2018.
2. The validity of constituent results for courses with an extra exam or assignment will be extended to August 31, 2018. If you failed all components or didn’t participate in the course in 2016-2017 you have to complete a course of the new programme. In the text and schedule below you can find the names of these replacing courses.

Transitional arrangements:

1. Management Consulting: This course will no longer be offered, MC: A Human Perspective with similar content will replace this course and will be offered in period 1
2. Strategy Control and Design: There will be one extra exam scheduled in week 8 of period 1. If you fail that exam you can follow one of the new courses in period 2 from the list below the schedule
3. Policy Evaluation and Advice: This course will no longer be offered, MC: Second Opinion Writing with similar content will replace this course and will be offered in period 1
4. Ethics: This course will no longer be offered, Business Ethics in MC with similar content will replace this course and will be offered in period 4
5. Research Seminar 1 and 2: If you miss one of the courses you can make the individual assignment to complete this course. If you miss both you have to follow the new course Research Seminar – MC
6. Consultant Approaches: This course will no longer be offered, Business Model Development with similar content will replace this course and will be offered in period 2
